A TALE AS OLD AS TIME.

FROM THE DIRECTOR

Hello again dear friends of the theatre!

There is an electric buzz of excitement in the air about our spring production, Disney's Beauty and the Beast! The rehearsals have been amazing and the talent on display in this production will simply thrill you.

The play is, of course, one of the most iconic and most beloved stories ever brought to life on the stage. Enchanting, heartwarming, beautiful, thrilling, and magical are just a few words that adequately reflect the scope of this epic story. Children, women, and men alike are all captivated by the charm and magic of Beauty and the Beast.

"What of the talent?", you may ask. There is talent galore, I implore you, believe me and not just talent, but so much more! The actors are wonderful! Several veterans of our stage return and deliver more than we could imagine. Some newer actors come into their own and blow us away with their talent, their dedication, and the love they pour into their performances. Our Beast will break our hearts with his tormented, yet hopeful portrayal, and our Belle will warm and mend our hearts with the love and warmth of a true Beauty, more than skin deep.

The actors playing Lumiere, Babette, Cogsworth, Mrs. Potts, Madame De La Grand Bouche, and Chip will all be as wonderful as can be as the principal enchanted objects in the Beast's castle. Maurice, Lefou, and Gaston are also portrayed by terrifically talented actors. Of course, all the actors, a total of 70, are so very talented and are dedicated to bringing their "A game" to the stage for this special show. The production company is rounded out with an enormously talented and dedicated group of designers, directors, and choreographers!

And what of the "so much more"? Well, the sets are fantastic including the Beast's beautiful castle. There will be special effects, beautiful lighting, and amazing voices! Some characters will even be flying through the air! This promises to be one of the most exciting and thrilling shows ever to grace the Northeast stage, and we cannot wait to share it with you!

Of course, none of this would be possible without the tremendous support from so many people who all play a role in helping to make the impossible, possible. Dr. Campbell, our President, is instrumental in every aspect of supporting, encouraging, and helping to guide the program to success. Our administration, faculty, and staff are all very generous in their support of the theatre department. Our patrons are wonderful for showing their support, faith, and love for theatre and the arts. Finally, by sharing laughter and tears with us, everyone who attends our productions makes theatre a work of love and joy. If we have warmed your hearts, then by default, you have warmed ours and fulfilled our wish to make a difference in your lives.

We wish you the grandest, most enchanting time as we present our version of this classic tale, and welcome you to "Be Our Guest!"

Warmest regards to all, Mark

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

"I will honour Christmas in my heart, and try to keep it all the year. I will live in the Past, the Present, and the Future. The Spirits of all Three shall strive within me. I will not shut out the lessons that they teach!" — Charles Dickens, A Christmas Carol

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

WE BELIEVE IN ARTS EDUCATION! In addition to plays, we offer a summer workshop, as well as three FREE programs: a performance of Beauty and the Beast (11th/12th graders), Outreach (9th graders) at local high schools, and Artreach (5th graders) at NACC.

Artreach NOW includes active participation in dance, acting, makeup, sound, lighting, singing, band, and visual art. Special thanks to ALL arts scholarship students, not just theatre, as well as their sponsors, including choral (Sara Markham), band (Stacy Morris), and art (Barbara Kilgore).

We would like to thank the superintendents, principals, teachers, and bus drivers of Fort Payne City, Scottsboro City, DeKalb County, and Jackson County for promoting these programs within their schools. We thank the staff at NACC for their outstanding support, and we would like to particularly thank Dr. David Campbell. Finally, our 14 drama scholarship students are an invaluable resource! Through our combined efforts with summer Workshop, Artreach, Outreach, and Beauty and the Beast, we have enhanced arts education for approximately 2200 students!
